

K-Love is an important part of my daily life and that of many of my friends.
It's displacement by an LPFM broadcaster would cause potential irreparable harm in a community that needs a music alternative that is encouraging and uplifting.